

Optimus 4-Season Gas, 230 g

Order number: CA-01029

The new 4-Season Gas from Optimus - reliable in any season.

The new 4-Season Gas from Optimus keeps outdoor stoves running in all seasons. The high-quality gas mix consists of propane, butane and an increased amount of isobutane, which has a particularly low boiling point. As a result, the 4-Season gas ensures stable performance even at temperatures around freezing to keep outdoor stoves running reliably in all seasons as well as at high altitudes.
